

Grand Pic-Nic Excursion to Cleveland and Lake Erie, Saturday, July 25th, 1874.

(Daily Dispatch, July 20, 1874)

Leaving Columbus at 5:15 a.m., Worthington, 5:35; Westerville, 5:42; Orange, 5:51; Lewis Center, 6:00; Berlin, 6:08, thence directly to Cleveland, taking no passengers by the way, and arrive at 11:00 a.m. On arrival the party will immediately go on board the splendid side-wheel steamer, Northwest, for Thirty miles ride and a Basket pic-nic on Lake Erie, returning to the city at 1:30 p.m. Ample time will be given to visit all points of interest, and leave for home from the Union Depot at 4:30 p.m., and arrive in Columbus at 9:45 p.m. Anybody and everybody, all are invited. The Company's elegant new coaches will run in the train.

Fare for the Round Trip, including Ride on the Lake, $2.50; Children under twelve years of age, $1.50. No other Excursion to Cleveland from these points.

Tickets will be on sale at the stations named, also at the American house, Neil House, Zettler House, National Hotel, Exchange Hotel, and Stage Office, for Wednesday morning, July 22d, until departure of train, if not sooner sold. Number of tickets limited to 500. Local rates will be charged persons who have no tickets. Parties wishing to avail themselves of these very low rates, should purchase tickets before Thursday night the 23d. Each passenger must carry their own ticket and exhibit it on entering the boat. Coaches reserved for ladies and gentlemen having ladies in charge. Have your baskets well filled for a Pic-nic on Lake Erie. Sunday schools, Churches, Lodges, &c., represented by fifty or more, will be furnished a coach on giving due notice to the Excursion Agent. You can depend on ample room for all.

E. S. Flint, General Superintendent, Cleveland; Robt. Blee, Division superintendent, Cleveland; C. E. Healy, Excursion Agent, New London; Eugene Ford, Passenger Agent, Columbus.
