Gentlemen:

While returning from Toledo, Ohio, on the night of July 3rd, as we neared Delaware, Ohio, one of your women guests, who had wine and dined freely, was unable to keep her equilibrium, and upset the tray in front of the writer, depositing three full highballs in the writer's lap. In the confusion, the lady vanished and we were unable to secure her name.

As the drinks had just been served, and had not as yet been tasted, new ones were ordered, as the steward explained that this was the procedure in order to be reimbursed.

I am enclosing receipt given to me by the waiter in charge, which with cleaning bill of 75 cents, makes a total of $1.75, for which I would appreciate receiving credit or a check for this amount.

Trusting that I may be favored with an early reply, I am,

Very truly yours,

Howard W. Herd
