Pittsburgh, Pa., August 8th, 1912.

Mr. C. C. VanZant,
Freight Agent,
Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Sir:-

I am sending to you herewith a sample leaf of C.A. & C. book form 119, and will be glad to have you say if the book is still in use. If it is still alive, please make requisition when a supply is needed, allowing 60 days for the printer to get out the work. The book will not be kept in stock in Stationery Storehouse. Please advise.

Yours truly,

Jas. Morrison
Stationery Storekeeper.

PENNSYLVANIA COMPANY.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 9th, 1913.

Mr. C. H. Brown.
Freight Agent.
Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Sir:

In your requisition of April 7th, 1913, you ordered five thousand (5000) Freight bills old form 24 C-A-t-C.

In this connection will say we furnished you twenty thousand (20000) full sheets or sixty thousand (60000) sets in October 1911, is there any reason of decreasing requisition to five thousand (5000). Please say about how many you will require for about nine months supply, returning sample with your reply.

In printing new supply we will omit the form number and send the entire supply to you, and when a new supply is required you should order at least two months before the blanks are required for use.

Yours truly,

Jas. Cranston
